1 BACKGROUND

Maccabi Australia Incorporated (MAI) is a not-for-profit organisation, committed to the connection and continuity of the Australian Jewish community through sport and wellbeing

Maccabi Australia sends a team to the Maccabiah Games in Israel every four years, providing a unique opportunity to Jewish athletes to:

- a) Strive for sporting excellence;
- b) Represent Australia at an international sporting event;
- c) Develop and deepen a sense of connection to; one another, the Maccabi movement and to Israel;
- d) Foster the growth of Maccabi clubs at a local level.

MAI has exclusive authority for the representation of Australia at the Maccabiah Games. MAI will select and send to the Maccabiah Games, those athletes who have proven they are adequately prepared for high level international competition by qualifying under the Selection Criteria.

These By-Laws cover the selection of officials and athletes to the Maccabiah Games. These By-Laws are a public document, made available at <https://www.maccabiteamaus.au/m25-policies> and endorsed by the Board of Maccabi Australia.

The Board of Maccabi Australia may amend the Team Selection By-Law at any time at its discretion.
